

Prof. Dr. Sanit Aksornkoae

Fellow of the Royal Institute, Academy of Science, Thailand

Prof. Dr. Sanit Aksornkoae is an expert on ecology and mangrove forest management, natural resources and environmental management. At the present, he is a fellow of the Royal Institute Academy of Science in Thailand. Moreover, he is also a member of the National Legislative Assembly, as well as, an Executive Director of the Sirindhorn International Environmental Park, including the Chairman of Executive Director, Office of the National Economic and Social Development Council.

Throughout his work experience, Prof. Dr. Sanit Aksornkoae received various important awards such as BIWAKO FOR ECOLOGY from Japan, National Outstanding Researcher Award in Agriculture and Biology from National Research Council of Thailand. Moreover, he also received an award for the Honorary Doctorate of Science (Ecology) from Prince of Songkla University. In addition, he received the Knight Grand Cordon (Special Class) of the Most Exalted Order of the White Elephant. Furthermore, he was a co-author of a book, Mangroves--ecology and management, which received TTF Award (Toyota Thailand Foundation Award) in environment in 1999.

Prof. Dr. Sanit Aksornkoae earned his Bachelor's degree and Master's degree of Science in forestry from Kasetsart University and he finished his Ph.D. in plant ecology from Michigan State University, USA.