

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Meredith L. Gore

Department of Fisheries & Wildlife,
Michigan State University, U.S.A.

Education:

- PhD Cornell University (Human Dimensions of Natural Resource Management, Communication, Conservation Biology)
- MA The George Washington University (Environment & Resource Policy)
- BA Brandeis University (Anthropology, Environmental Studies)

Certificates:

Women in Leadership Program Certificate, eCornell

Professional Progression:

- Associate Professor, Department of Fisheries & Wildlife, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan (2017-present)
- Associate Professor, Department of Fisheries & Wildlife, School of Criminal Justice, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan (2014-2017)
- Assistant Professor, Department of Fisheries & Wildlife, School of Criminal Justice, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan (2008-2014)
- Office of the Provost Diversity Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of Fisheries & Wildlife, Michigan State University (2006-2007)

Fellowships & Appointments:

- United States Department of State, Intelligence Research Expert, Bureau of Intelligence and Research (2019)
- United States Department of State, Embassy Science Fellow, US Mission to the African Union and Regional Environmental Office East Africa (2018)
- National Academies of Sciences Jefferson Science Fellow & Senior Science Advisor, United States Department of State, Bureau of Intelligence and Research, Office of Geography and Global Issues (2015, declined; 2016-2017 DC residence; 2017-2018 Michigan residence)
- Michigan State University Academy of Global Engagement Fellowship (2014-2015)
- Emerging Wildlife Conservation Leadership Fellowship (2004-2006)