

Dr. Freddy Manongi

Ngorongoro Conservation Area Authority, Tanzania

He started career as wildlife ranger in 1982, in Moyowosi Game Reserve western, Tanzania moved to wildlife officer with Anti-Poaching unit of the wildlife department between 1987 and 1991. He was moved from the Wildlife Department to train at College of African Wildlife Management in Tanzania in 1991 and worked with the College as tutorial assistant. Between 1991 and 2013, he moved from tutorial assistant to Principal of the College of African Wildlife Management in Tanzania. He was appointed Conservator of Ngorongoro Conservation Area Authority in 2013 and still the Conservator to-date. Between 1999 and 2001, he worked as environmental advisor at the Ministry for Finance and Development Planning with the Government of Botswana. He hold certificate and diploma in wildlife management, bachelor degree in zoology and wildlife ecology (Dar), MSc in Conservation Biology (Cape Town), and PhD in religion and ecology (Bangor, Wales). He has vast experiences in aspects of conservation policy and planning.